Management Discussion of Performance

Results of Operations

The NEI Select Maximum Growth RS Portfolio's Series A units returned 16.5% for the six-month period ended March 31, 2024 compared with a return of 19.3% for the benchmark explained below.

Unlike the benchmark return, the Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses paid by the Fund. Performance differences between series of units are mainly attributable to management fees charged to each series. Refer to the Past Performance section for the details of returns by series.

The blended benchmark is composed of 20% S&P/TSX Composite TR Index and 80% MSCI ACWI NR Index (C$).

The Fund's net asset value increased by 23.05% during the period, from $338,467,055 as at September 30, 2023 to $416,495,440 as at March 31, 2024. This change in net assets is attributed to net unitholder activity of $20,774,214 and $57,254,171 to investment operations, including market appreciation (depreciation), income and expenses.

Market Overview

The fourth quarter of 2023 delivered a welcome gift for investors. After the slight reality check at the beginning of October, the remainder of the year saw strong returns across most major asset classes. The central banks' indication that the tightening cycle has likely come to an end and the possibility of interest rate cuts in 2024 boosted almost all markets.

In the first quarter of 2024, resilient economic data continued to support the economic "soft landing" narrative and pushed equity markets around the world to new record highs. All global regions posted strong returns with Japan leading the pack. While equity investors welcomed strong economic data, the start to 2024 was a more challenging period for fixed income investors. Stickier inflation and resilience in economic activity have shifted market expectations of rate cuts and push yields higher, which has led to losses in fixed income markets.

For the six-month period ending March 31, 2024, markets across asset classes in key regions all registered extraordinary gains, with the FTSE Universe Bond Index advancing 6.9%, and the MSCI All Country World Index gaining 20.2%.

Factors That Have Affected Performance

Over the period, some of the contributors to performance were NEI Environmental Leaders Fund (Series I), NEI Emerging Markets Fund (Series I), NEI Global Value Fund (Series I), NEI Global Equity RS Fund (Series I), as well as out-of-benchmark allocations to U.S. equities. Some of the detractors over the period included NEI International Equity RS Fund (Series I), NEI U.S. Equity Fund (Series I), NEI Clean Infrastructure Fund (Series I), and NEI Canadian Equity RS Fund (Series I), as well as the out-of-benchmark allocations to emerging market equities and infrastructure equities.

Portfolio Changes

The Fund underwent a strategic asset allocation review and optimization during the period. Overall asset allocation between fixed income and equities remains unchanged at target as we maintain a constructive view on both asset classes from a long-term return and risk perspective. We believe that the strategic asset mix remains optimal. Although long-term expected returns in fixed income have not changed significantly since last year, the Fund's asset allocation favours global fixed income over Canadian fixed income due to lower volatility of global bonds, which has resulted in higher allocations to global fixed income. The allocations to NEI High Yield Bond Fund and NEI Global Total Return Bond Fund were increased. On the equity side, the relative attractiveness between regions has changed and the Fund's asset allocation favours developed markets in international and U.S. equities at the expense of Canadian and emerging market equities.

Environmental, Social, And Governance (ESG) Activities

In addition to any ESG-related commentary made in the sections above, other ESG-related activities undertaken by NEI in the period are described here. The activities are presented in connection with the underlying equity funds that NEI Select Maximum Growth RS Portfolio invests in, highlighting the top five funds by weight. All votes cast on shareholder resolutions were consistent with NEI's Proxy Voting Guidelines, available at www.neiinvestments.com.

For NEI U.S. Equity RS Fund, NEI's Responsible Investing team (RI team) engaged 17 companies, including Apple Inc., JPMorgan Chase & Co., and Oracle Corp., on topics such as equitable compensation, net-zero commitments and transition plans, and nature impacts. The RI team voted against management on 61% of the proxy items at 14 annual general meetings and/or special meetings. They supported 48% of 23 shareholder resolutions filed on ESG topics such as weapons development, use of artificial intelligence (AI), and gender and racial pay gaps.

For NEI International Equity RS Fund, the RI team engaged five companies, including Nestlé SA, Air Liquide SA, and DSM-Firmenich AG, on topics such as equitable access and nature impacts. They voted against management on 5% of the proxy items at six annual general meetings and/or special meetings. There were no shareholder resolutions on the ballots.

For NEI Global Equity RS Fund, the RI team engaged 15 companies, including Amazon.com Inc., Alphabet Inc., and Pfizer Inc., on topics such as equitable compensation, water, and nature impacts. The RI team voted against management on 38% of the proxy items at 19 annual general meetings and/or special meetings. They supported 37% of 19 shareholder resolutions filed on ESG topics such as gender and racial pay gaps, risks of operating in countries with significant human rights concerns, and use of AI.

For NEI Canadian Equity RS Fund, the RI team engaged 16 companies, including AltaGas Ltd., Canadian Tire Corp. Ltd., and Loblaw Cos. Ltd., on topics such as net-zero commitments and transition plans and supply chain risks. The RI team voted against management on 58% of the proxy items at two annual general meetings and/or special meetings. They supported 83% of six shareholder resolutions filed on ESG topics such as anticompetitive practices and auditor rotation.

For NEI Global Growth Fund, the RI team engaged nine companies, including Alphabet, Amazon, and Shopify Inc., on topics such as equitable compensation, water, and nature impacts. The RI team voted against management on 22% of the proxy items at eight annual general meetings and/or special meetings. They supported 25% of four shareholder resolutions filed on ESG topics such as reporting on efforts and risks related to human rights and labour rights.

Recent Developments

Central banks are eager to gain confidence that inflation has reached and will remain at the target range for long enough that they can begin cutting interest rates, as they are also concerned that higher rates for too long could start to cause too much damage to aggregate demand. While the timing of rate cuts may be pushed out until later in the year, we believe the current environment of moderate growth coupled with declining inflation creates a constructive environment for risk assets.

Although U.S. “exceptionalism” may continue given the superior level of earnings growth and market dominance in the development of AI capabilities, the rich valuation in U.S. equities has likely sown the seeds for a more muted performance in the future relative to international equities given their much cheaper valuations. It is prudent to consider having appropriate geographic, in addition to sector and style diversification in a well-diversified portfolio.

In Canada, economic growth remains below potential, but better clarity on path of rate cuts may provide relief.

In fixed income, although bond markets have suffered, given the decreased likelihood of imminent rate cuts, we think that bonds still offer compelling yields at current levels, and can provide a buffer to equity volatility in the case of an economic downturn. Positive real yields make the income side of the equation for bonds more attractive, plus expectations for rate cuts later in 2024 may add capital appreciation potential in the years ahead.

(4) Distributions (if any) that may have been made that included return of capital in excess of short term earnings were made to minimize disruption and provide stability to investors who have elected to take their distributions in the form of cash, and as disclosed in the simplified prospectus. These amounts are reviewed at each calendar year-end and management engages in discussions with the sub-advisor to determine the most applicable strategy on a go forward basis and will take any action(s) as needed for the long-term stability of the Fund.

(1) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, as well as withholding taxes) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

(2) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

(3) The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's sub-advisor manages its investment holdings. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher the portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.

(4) The Fund changed the fiscal year end date from December 31 to September 30. Expense ratios for period ended September 30, 2019 reflect nine-month reporting period from December 31, 2018 to September 30, 2019.

(5) At the close of business on April 23, 2021, the NEI Select Maximum Growth Portfolio was merged into the NEI Select Maximum Growth RS Portfolio. The portfolio turnover rates exclude the value of securities acquired and sold to realign the Fund's holdings.

Management Fees

The Manager is responsible for the management, supervision and administration of the Fund. The Manager receives from the Fund management fees, before HST, calculated daily on the net asset value of the Fund at an annual rate shown below. The Fund does not pay management fees for Series I and O units. Series I and O unitholders pay a negotiated fee directly to NEI Investments.

The management fee covers the cost of investment advisory fees, sales, marketing, and distribution expenses of the Fund. In addition, the Manager may pay a trailer fee to dealers out of this management fee. The trailer fee is a percentage of the average daily value of the units of the Fund held by the dealer's clients. No trailer fees are paid in respect of any Series F and PF units of the Fund.

In addition to the fees and expenses directly payable by the Fund, certain fees and expenses may be payable by some underlying funds. The Fund indirectly bears its proportionate share of such fees and expenses. However, the Fund does not pay any management fees, or similar expenses that, in the view of the Manager, to a reasonable person, would duplicate a fee payable by an investor in any underlying fund for the same service.

The following table shows the major services paid for out of management fees as a percentage of the management fee for all applicable series of the Fund:

	Management Fee (%)	Investment Advisory and Other Fees (%)	Trailer Fee (%)
Series A	1.90	47.76	52.24
Series F	0.90	100.00	N/A
Series P	1.65	39.32	60.68
Series PF	0.65	100.00	N/A

Past Performance

The performance information provided will not necessarily indicate how the Fund will perform in the future. The information shown assumes that distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units of the relevant series of the Fund. In addition, the information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that would have reduced returns or performance.

Year-by-Year Returns
