Management Discussion of Performance

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund's investment objective is to generate income while providing some capital growth over the longterm through exposure to foreign and Canadian fixed income and money market instruments and exposure to foreign and Canadian equity securities while primarily focussing on positive environmental and/or social impact.

To achieve its objective, the Fund will invest in underlying funds, which may be managed by NEI Investments.

The Fund follows a responsible approach to investing, as described in the Simplified Prospectus of the Fund.

Risk

The risks associated with investing in the Fund remain as discussed in the Simplified Prospectus. This Fund is suitable for investors investing for the short to medium term, with a low to medium tolerance for risk. Any changes in the Fund have not affected the overall level of risk of the Fund.

Results of Operations

The Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses paid by the Fund. Performance differences between series of units are mainly attributable to management fees charged to each series.

The blended benchmark is composed of 60% Bloomberg Global Aggregate Index (C$ Hedged) and 40% MSCI ACWI NR Index (C$).

The Fund commenced operations on June 29, 2023. The net asset value of the Fund was $333,540 on September 30, 2023. The net assets are comprised of $347,000 in net unitholder activity and -$13,460 in investment operations, including market appreciation (depreciation), income, and expenses.

Market Overview

After bottoming in October 2022, equity markets were mostly on an upward trajectory during the period. Performance was driven by better-than-expected economic indicators, slowing inflation and interest rate hikes, and the narrative around artificial intelligence (AI) and its potential benefits.

Equity markets had some volatility during the first half of the period, each month driven by unique and divergent narratives. In January, falling yields drove markets towards a strong risk-on posture, which led to low-quality and high-volatility stocks outperforming. However, risk sentiment changed rapidly in February, as concerns around persistent inflation and the U.S. Federal Reserve Board keeping interest rates higher for longer, began to take hold. In March, yields fell materially due to increased concerns about credit and liquidity risks stemming from negative developments at financial institutions such as SVB Financial Group, Signature Bank and Credit Suisse Group AG.

The quick recovery from the regional banking crisis brought skeptics off the sidelines, and in the second quarter of 2023, the equity rally that was mostly driven by the handful of mega-capitalization stocks extended further, delivering one of the best S&P 500 Index first-half returns on record. So far, the market has been focused on the first order beneficiaries of AI, including the mega-cap Information Technology companies Microsoft Corp., Apple Inc., NVIDIA Corp., Tesla Inc., Meta Platforms Inc., Amazon.com Inc., and Alphabet Inc. U.S. equity markets marched into bull market territory in July as economic data showed resilience with strong growth and key inflation indicators easing. However, the steady upward market trend that began in mid-March ended in August, when the markets started seeing some volatility and negative returns as rising yields and uncertainty surrounding the path of global economies were the main concerns among investors.

More recently the focus has shifted from whether there will be another interest rate hike, to how long central banks will hold rates at restrictive levels, with “higher for longer” increasingly viewed as the necessary scenario. Fiscal sustainability was another area of concern for bond investors in the U.S., with the U.S. Treasury market being hit by concerns over the amount of issuance that will be required to sustain a large fiscal deficit, coupled with decreased demand from foreign investors.

While the U.S. has greater prospects of making a soft landing, recession risk in Canada is rising. The economy entered a period of weaker growth, with a marked weakening in consumption and a contraction in manufacturing activity. This weakening in consumption indicated that Canadian consumers are starting to feel the weight of tighter monetary policies.

Economic data coming from Europe continued to surprise negatively, as tighter monetary policy weighed on consumers and businesses. Both the manufacturing and the service indices were in contractionary territory and forward-looking indicators pointed to further declines in output ahead.

Japan was the best-performing equity market this year with recent months seeing a chorus of bullish calls on Japanese equities and a surge in overseas investor interest, pushing the main indices back to levels not seen since 1989. This growth was attributed to confidence in corporate earnings and attractive stock valuations. Additionally, the Tokyo Stock Exchange's call for companies to focus on sustainable growth and raising their price-to-book ratios has also played a role. These factors led to increased foreign investments, but a weakening of the yen limited gains for overseas investors.

Factors That Have Affected Performance

Over the period, some of the contributors to performance were NEI Canadian Impact Bond Fund (Series I), NEI Global Impact Bond Fund, NEI Small Cap Equity RS Fund (Series I), as well as the selection of equity exchange-traded funds. Some of the detractors from performance over the period included NEI Clean Infrastructure Fund (Series I) and NEI Environmental Leaders Fund (Series I).

ESG Activities

The following environmental, social, and governance (ESG) activities are some of those undertaken during the period related to the Fund's investment objectives and strategies. The activities are presented in connection with the underlying funds that the Fund invests in.

For NEI Global Impact Bond Fund, NEI's Responsible Investing & ESG Services team (RI team) engaged Whitbread PLC, Credit Agricole SA, and Bank of America Corp., on topics such as animal welfare and deforestation.

For NEI Canadian Impact Bond Fund, the RI team engaged Canadian National Railway Co. on the topic of net-zero commitments.

For NEI Clean Infrastructure Fund, the RI team engaged four companies including Innergex Renewable Energy Inc., NextEra Energy Inc., and TransAlta Renewables Inc., on topics such as supply chain risks and biodiversity. They voted against management on 27% of the proxy items at 35 annual general meetings. They supported 76% of 21 shareholder resolutions filed on ESG topics such as director remuneration and board diversity.

For NEI Environmental Leaders Fund, the RI team engaged four companies including Applied Materials Inc., Waste Management Inc., and Microsoft, on topics such as water, the circular economy, and digital rights. They voted against management on 28% of the proxy items at 51 annual general meetings. They supported 87% of 15 shareholder resolutions filed on ESG topics such as development of products for the military, tax transparency, and racial equity audits.

Recent Developments

We continue to expect the effects of monetary tightening to weigh on the economy between late 2023 and early 2024. The U.S. is still the most resilient economy but is showing signs of slowdown, while risk of recession in Canada and Europe is rising.

We have a preference for U.S. markets over other regions given the relatively greater resilience in its economy and higher expected earnings growth in 2024 and 2025. Historically speaking, positive economic growth along with falling inflation creates a supportive environment for both bonds and equities. High-growth assets may pullback mildly, given their higher valuation and moderating growth. However, the majority of the market is at reasonable valuation and can provide support.

We believe the market's current belief that interest rates will be "higher for longer" may not hold for long if inflation continues to recede. We believe the market will be in a holding pattern until the end of the year as growth weakens. However, as inflation continues to fall and corporate earnings improve over the next 6-9 months, we believe it will create a positive environment for both equities and fixed income. The recent pullback in equities and rally in yields has created an attractive entry point for long-term investors.

The term of Marie Rounding ended on September 30, 2023. Ms. Rounding has served with distinction on the Independent Review Committee ("IRC") since 2014. After consulting with the Manager, the IRC determined it would replace Ms. Rounding with Caroline Cathcart. Ms. Cathcart was appointed as a new IRC member effective October 01, 2023, for a one-year term. As Ms. Rounding acted as the IRC chair after her term ended, Ms. McCarthy was appointed IRC Chair, effective October 5, 2023, and replaced Ms. Rounding in this role.

Ratios and Supplemental Data

Series	Period	Total Net Asset Value (000's of $)	Number of Units Outstanding (000's)	Management Expense Ratio (%) ⁽¹⁾	Management Expense Ratio before Waivers and Absorptions (%)	Trading Expense Ratio (%) ⁽²⁾	Portfolio Turnover Rate (%) ⁽³⁾	Net Asset Value per Unit ($)
A	Sept. 2023	332	35	1.99	1.99	0.15	10.24	9.48
F	Sept. 2023	1	-	0.84	0.84	0.15	10.24	9.51
O	Sept. 2023	1	-	0.09	0.09	0.15	10.24	9.52

(1) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, as well as withholding taxes) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. The Fund's management expense ratio includes a proportion of the management expense ratio from underlying ETFs held in the Fund's portfolio during the year.

(2) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. The Fund's trading expense ratio includes a proportion of the trading expense ratio from underlying ETFs held in the Fund's portfolio during the year.

(3) The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's sub-advisor manages its investment holdings. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher the portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.

Management Fees

The Manager is responsible for the management, supervision and administration of the Fund. The Manager receives from the Fund management fees, before HST, calculated daily on the net asset value of the Fund at an annual rate shown below. The Fund does not pay management fees for Serie O units. Series O unitholders pay a negotiated fee directly to NEI Investments.

The management fee covers the cost of investment advisory fees, sales, marketing, and distribution expenses of the Fund. In addition, the Manager may pay a trailer fee to dealers out of this management fee. The trailer fee is a percentage of the average daily value of the units of the Fund held by the dealer’s clients. No trailer fees are paid in respect of any Series F units of the Fund.

In addition to the fees and expenses directly payable by the Fund, certain fees and expenses may be payable by some underlying third party funds. The Fund indirectly bears its proportionate share of such fees and expenses. However, the Fund does not pay any management fees or similar expenses that, in the view of the Manager, a reasonable person would consider duplicate a fee payable by an underlying fund for the same service.

The following table shows the major services paid for out of management fees as a percentage of the management fee for all applicable series of the Fund:

	Management Fee (%)	Investment Advisory and Other Fees (%)	Trailer Fee (%)
Series A	1.55	98.51	1.49
Series F	0.55	100.00	N/A
