Management Discussion of Performance

Results of Operations

The NEI Canadian Small Cap Equity RS Fund's Series A units returned 4.5% for the six months ended March 31, 2022 compared with a return of 5.1% for the benchmark explained below.

Unlike the benchmark return, the Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses paid by the Fund. Performance differences between series of units are mainly attributable to management fees charged to each series. Refer to the Past Performance section for the details of returns by series.

The benchmark for this Fund is the BMO Small Cap Blended Index (Unweighted).

The Fund's net asset value increased by 16.21% during the period, from $538,220,545 as at September 30, 2021 to $625,452,198 as at March 31, 2022. This change in net assets is attributed to net unitholder activity of $58,175,845 and $29,055,808 to investment operations, including market appreciation (depreciation), income and expenses.

Factors That Have Affected Performance

Energy and materials have dominated benchmark performance so far this year as geopolitical risks have sent commodity prices soaring. This represented narrow leadership with many other non-resource sectors producing negative returns over the period. Notwithstanding strong absolute performance by the Fund's energy holdings, the lag versus the benchmark sector's nearly 47% advance and limited precious metals exposure detracted from relative performance. This was more than offset by strong relative performance within health care, industrials and information technology.

The Fund's top contributing investments were Freehold Royalties Ltd., Pason Systems Inc. and Major Drilling Group International. The largest detractors were Lasseonde Industries Inc., Stella-Jones Inc. and Martinrea International Inc.

Recent Developments

Rising market risks including geopolitical tension and inflation fears contributed to a pronounced and rapid increase in the risk premium that equity investors demanded in the quarter. While the Canadian small cap market quickly recovered, other markets did not. Recent volatility is an important reminder that investors' portfolios should be prepared for the unexpected and various economic conditions across an investment horizon. Near-term earnings growth in corporate Canada should be supported by increased commodity prices, and overall valuation levels look reasonable relative to history and other markets.

Through diversified and sound portfolio construction, the Fund continues to be positioned for various types of terrain the road ahead may bring. The Fund maintains lower balance sheet risk, better longer-term profitability and stronger sector diversity than the resource-tilted and heavily cyclical benchmark, along with comparable or lower valuation risk. While the Fund may lag in a narrow market led by resources, over a full cycle the Fund should provide attractive income (2.4% dividend yield) and, importantly, dividend growth driven by sound and improving compounding by the underlying businesses in the Fund. Over 80% of the Fund's holdings pay a dividend and the current below-average earnings payout ratio of ~30% reflects flexibility for growth.

The portfolio sub-advisor participated in the initial public offering of Definity Financial Corp. (formerly Economical Insurance), which has a 150-year history in the Canadian property & casualty insurance space. Since 2016, under the leadership of a new CEO, the company has accelerated growth and profitability while preparing for its transition to a publicly held corporation. With a more efficient capital structure, they see significant upside to the company's already strong returns on equity. The company has a strong balance sheet and provides fresh diversification within financials.

Other new positions included GDI Integrated Facility Services Inc., the largest janitorial service provider in Canada. The company has a strong record of organic growth and successful tuck-in acquisitions as it consolidates within the highly fragmented janitorial industry. The runway of opportunity for GDI appears abundant as it looks to increase its presence in the US. Over the long term, the company has grown revenue and EBITDA per share above 10% per annum.

IBI Group was also added to the Fund, an architecture, engineering, planning and technology firm operating in 12 countries worldwide, with a top-two position in Canada. Its technology solutions, which are growing faster than the traditional architecture business, are beneficial to margins and enhance the depth of customer relationships. The portfolio sub-advisor doesn't believe the potential value of this segment is fully reflected in the share price today, as the company trades at an attractive absolute and relative valuation with prospects for continued growth in free cash flow.

Calian provides technology & business services across a number of industry and government categories. The company has generated attractive growth in per share operating metrics while reducing concentration risk and increasing exposure to asset-lite and growth-oriented businesses. Calian provides reasonably priced exposure to organic growth in the health care and technology sectors. The portfolio sub-advisor expects sound returns on incremental capital invested, largely funded through excess cash.

National Research Corp (NRC) supports more than 8,000 health care firms via its digital platform of portfolio solutions to collect, measure and analyze data. Revenue growth has largely been organic, and the business model demonstrates scale benefits which have allowed for double digit earnings per share compounding over time. The portfolio sub-advisor views NRC as an above-average business trading at a reasonable valuation.

Eliminated positions included Westshore Terminals Investment Corp., Element Fleet Management Corp. and Superior Plus Corp. The Fund also exited Enerflex Ltd. following its announcement of a large acquisition that significantly increases complexity and balance sheet risks in the portfolio sub-advisor's view.

(1) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, as well as withholding taxes) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

(2) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other Fund transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

(3) The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's sub-advisor manages its investment holdings. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher the portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.

Management Fees

The Manager is responsible for the management, supervision and administration of the Fund. The Manager receives from the Fund management fees, before HST, calculated daily on the net asset value of the Fund at an annual rate shown below. The Fund does not pay management fees for Series I and O units. Series I and O unitholders pay a negotiated fee directly to NEI Investments.

The management fee covers the cost of investment advisory fees, sales, marketing, and distribution expenses of the Fund. In addition, the Manager may pay a trailer fee to dealers out of this management fee. The trailer fee is a percentage of the average daily value of the units of the Fund held by the dealer's clients. No trailer fees are paid in respect of any Series F and PF units of the Fund.

The following table shows the major services paid for out of management fees as a percentage of the management fee for all applicable series of the Fund:

	Management Fee (%)	Investment Advisory and Other Fees (%)	Trailer Fee (%)
Series A	2.10	55.52	44.48
Series F	1.10	100.00	N/A
Series P	1.85	45.94	54.06
Series PF	0.85	100.00	N/A

Past Performance

The performance information provided will not necessarily indicate how the Fund will perform in the future. The information shown assumes that distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units of the relevant series of the Fund. In addition, the information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that would have reduced returns or performance.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following charts show the annual performance for each series of units of the Fund for each period shown and illustrate how the Fund's performance has varied from period to period with the exception of 2022, which shows the six-month return for the period ended March 31, 2022. The charts indicate how much an investment made on the first day of each financial period would have grown or decreased by the last day of each financial period.
