Management Discussion of Performance

Results of Operations

The NEI International Equity RS Fund's Series A units returned -11.0% for the six months ended March 31, 2022 compared with a return of -4.7% for the benchmark explained below.

Unlike the benchmark return, the Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses paid by the Fund. Performance differences between series of units are mainly attributable to management fees charged to each series. Refer to the Past Performance section for the details of returns by series.

The benchmark for this Fund is the MSCI EAFE NR Index (C$).

The Fund's net asset value decreased by 23.02% during the period, from $468,248,456 as at September 30, 2021 to $360,446,799 as at March 31, 2022. This change in net assets is attributed to net unitholder activity of -$59,692,741 and -$48,108,916 to investment operations, including market appreciation (depreciation), income and expenses.

Factors That Have Affected Performance

Stock selection was the primary detractor to the Fund's relative performance during the period. Holdings within Health Care and Consumer Staples were among the largest drivers of the underperformance. This was partially offset by the stock selection within Industrials and Consumer Discretionary.

Overall, sector allocation was also a contributor to the Fund's underperformance. The lack of exposure to Energy, which was the strongest performing sector in the period, also detracted the Fund's relative performance. The underweight in Information Technology as well as the overweight exposure to Materials helped to slightly offset the negative sector allocation effect.

Recent Developments

Regarding transactions, in the last quarter of 2021, the portfolio sub-advisor added to the positions in Orpea (France, Health Care Facilities) and Worldline (France, Data Processing and Outsourced Services). Despite the market headwinds from lingering COVID-19 concerns in health care and the increased competition in the payments industry, the portfolio sub-advisor believes that the long-term investment thesis for each of these companies remain positive.

The first quarter of 2022 was marked by a volatile market environment. The portfolio sub-advisor added to the positions in Orpea (France, Health Care Facilities), Tencent (China, Interactive Media & Services), and Worldline (France, Data Processing and Outsourced Services), and crystalized some gains in Novo Nordisk (Denmark, Pharmaceuticals), Bunzl (UK, Trading Companies and Distributors), and Linde (Germany, Industrial Gases). The portfolio sub-advisor liquidated JD.com (China, Internet & Direct Marketing Retail) which was received in the portfolio as a result of the spin-off transaction by Tencent.

The investment approach of the portfolio sub-advisor is focused on the long term. The investment philosophy and process emphasize secular and sustainable growth themes that can be leveraged by global players with key competitive advantages and seasoned management teams. The portfolio sub-advisor believes that these attributes enable companies to generate strong and sustainable results over time. The portfolio sub-advisor continues to remain alert on market disconnections and keep an eye on opportunities that allow to improve the Fund's risk-return profile.

(1) All per unit figures presented in 2022 are referenced to net assets determined in accordance with IFRS and are derived from the Fund's semi-annual financial statements for the period ended March 31, 2022.

(2) Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period.

(3) Distributions were paid in cash or reinvested in additional units of the Fund.

(4) Distributions (if any) that may have been made that included return of capital in excess of short term earnings were made to minimize disruption and provide stability to investors who have elected to take their distributions in the form of cash, and as disclosed in the Simplified Prospectus. These amounts are reviewed at each calendar year-end and management engages in discussions with the sub-advisor to determine the most applicable strategy on a go forward basis and will take any action(s) as needed for the long term stability of the Fund.

(1) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs, as well as withholding taxes) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

(2) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other Fund transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

(3) The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's sub-advisor manages its investment holdings. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher the portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.

(4) At the close of business on April 16, 2021, the NEI International Equity Fund was merged into the NEI International Equity RS Fund. The portfolio turnover rates exclude the value of securities acquired and sold to realign the Fund's holdings.

Management Fees

The Manager is responsible for the management, supervision and administration of the Fund. The Manager receives from the Fund management fees, before HST, calculated daily on the net asset value of the Fund at an annual rate shown below. The Fund does not pay management fees for Series I and O units. Series I and O unitholders pay a negotiated fee directly to NEI Investments.

The management fee covers the cost of investment advisory fees, sales, marketing, and distribution expenses of the Fund. In addition, the Manager may pay a trailer fee to dealers out of this management fee. The trailer fee is a percentage of the average daily value of the units of the Fund held by the dealer's clients. No trailer fees are paid in respect of any Series F and PF units of the Fund.

The following table shows the major services paid for out of management fees as a percentage of the management fee for all applicable series of the Fund:

	Management Fee (%) ⁽¹⁾	Investment Advisory and Other Fees (%)	Trailer Fee (%)
Series A	1.95	52.73	47.27
Series F	0.90	100.00	N/A
Series P	1.70	41.17	58.83
Series PF	0.70	100.00	N/A

(1) Management fee rates were reduced, effective April 9, 2021, from 2.00% to 1.95% for Series A, from 1.00% to 0.90% for Series F, from 1.75% to 1.70% for Series P and from 0.75% to 0.70% for Series PF.

Past Performance

The performance information provided will not necessarily indicate how the Fund will perform in the future. The information shown assumes that distributions made by the Fund in the periods shown were reinvested in additional units of the relevant series of the Fund. In addition, the information does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or other optional charges that would have reduced returns or performance.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following charts show the annual performance for each series of units of the Fund for each period shown and illustrate how the Fund's performance has varied from period to period with the exception of 2022, which shows the six-month return for the period ended March 31, 2022. The charts indicate how much an investment made on the first day of each financial period would have grown or decreased by the last day of each financial period.
