

NEI INVESTMENTS ANNOUNCES A CHANGE IN THE RISK RATING OF THE NEI SELECT CONSERVATIVE CORPORATE CLASS PORTFOLIO

[September 16, 2015] NEI Investments today announced that the level of risk associated with NEI Select Conservative Corporate Class Portfolio has been lowered from “Low to Medium” to “Low” to be consistent with the risk rating of NEI Select Conservative Portfolio, the underlying fund in which the fund invests substantially all of its assets. This change will be reflected in an amendment to the simplified prospectus and annual information form and updated Fund Facts for the fund that are expected to be dated on or about September 16, 2015.

NEI Investments follows a risk classification methodology based on the approach recommended by the Investment Funds Institute of Canada. No material changes have been made to the investment objectives, strategies or management of the NEI Select Conservative Corporate Class Portfolio.

ABOUT NEI INVESTMENTS

NEI Investments is a national investment firm with approximately $6 billion in assets under management.
